IMPORTANT NOTICE.

This Price List is the most complete of its kind ever issued for free distribution and includes many stamps never previously priced in any list or catalogue.

Everything quoted is in stock at time of going to press. Prices will be found reasonable and, in some instances as low as 25 to 33% of catalogue, but all prices are net.

UNUSED STAMPS:—

Prices quoted are for fine copies, centered (i. e. the perforations do not touch design of stamp) and with original gum (except some of the Spanish Colonial issues). U. S. Stamps without gum or slightly off center, or perforated at 3 sides only, can frequently be supplied at a reduction of 20 to 60% from prices here quoted.

USED STAMPS:—

For these prices we agree to furnish lightly cancelled good copies which are centered (see above). Specimens a little more heavily cancelled, not centered or perforated at three sides only can frequently be supplied at 20-60% discount and want lists of stamps priced not less than 10c are solicited on this basis. Many of the old issues are extremely difficult to obtain in the condition required by some collectors. Our stock is at present particularly strong in such fine specimens, but in a few of the rare U. S. issues, especially when shades are considered, an increase of price may become necessary.

Specialists

should ask for our special books of shades or blocks, of which we carry a beautiful assortment.

References are essential with new customers asking for stamps on approval.

On orders under 50c postage extra, if above $4.00 registration at our expense.

Numbers used are same as Scott's 1907.

Remittances under $1 may be sent in unused postage of U.S., Great Britain, Germany or France.

$1 = 4s 2d = M 4.25 = fr. 5.10.

Correspondence in German, French and Spanish.

ENVELOPES.

Cut Square.

All envelopes offered in this list are cut square with ample margins in accordance with the International Album and are in first class condition Of the higher priced we can frequently supply copies with smaller margins at considerably reduced rates

Our stock of entires is the most complete in existence. For these we refer to BARTELS' ENTIRE ENVELOPE CATALOG, see back of this list.

In the issues prior to 1870 there are numerous important and rare die varieties, both in the heads and lettering, which have been exhaustively treated in the extensively illustrated work of our Mr. V. M. Berthold, "The Die Varieties of the Nesbitt Envelopes" Price $1 00.

All envelopes marked * exist in more than one variety of die, most of which were included in the 1906 Scott Catalog. Our stock of the latter, both cut square and entire, is unsurpassed and special books of these die varieties will be submitted on application. Owing to the great scarcity of some of the dies the present prices are certainly low and will necessarily advance soon.

The second number in this list refers to the space in the International Album.

TELEGRAPH STAMPS.

A fair stock of these always on hand. Let us know your wants.

LOCAL STAMPS

are among the most interesting of all issues. We have devoted much study to them and can supply a good assortment on and off covers.

REVENUE STAMPS

are not included in our specialties, although we carry a fairly complete stock of all except the rarest. We can supply the lower and medium priced generally at half catalog for fine copies, and solicit want lists.

Of the 1898 issues we have a nice assortment of shades unused, both old and new roulette.

Among our Private Proprietary Stamps we have one of the only three known copies of the Caterson, Brotz & Co. (No. 3582).

PANAMA.

ISSUES AS PROVINCE OF COLUMBIA.

A splendid stock of these popular and interesting stamps. A nice line of shades and blocks of four, including the rare 1878 10c blue.

ISSUES OF THE REPUBLIC.

The multitude of surcharges form an attractive study. We have a splendid stock at prices to meet all competition. Can supply many errors and minor varieties, mostly in blocks or single specimens. Our best approval books of Panama totals over $600.

DANISH WEST INDIES.

Have been another specialty of ours. See A. J. of P., Vol XV, page 128. Numerous recent purchases have brought our stock up to date and we are complete in all the printings, many also in blocks of four. Large specialized selections sent on approval.

SAMOAN ISLANDS.

Part of them are American territory. The stamps offer much of interest. We have them including originals of the "Express" issue.

FOREIGN STAMPS.

It is impractical for us to issue a complete list of the above. Our stock is one of the largest.

Last spring we secured the well known general collection of E. H. Mason, Esq , of this city. Its catalog value approximated $75,000.

In British Colonies we have a splendid line of old issues, strong in unused.

Each country is made up into a small approval book in which are included numerous shades, oddities, etc.

Ask for our special approval books of your favorite countries.

AUCTION SALES.

During the season (October to May) we hold auction sales of stamps. These are the property of outside parties whom we charge a commission for our services.

Catalogs giving a full description of each lot are mailed a few weeks before the sale. Have your name placed on the mailing list.

If you desire TO SELL for any reason, write to us for terms and dates. We do the arranging and guarantee expert services. Our catalogs have a wide circulation among the best buying collectors.

SETS AND PACKETS.

A separate list of especially cheap and attractive sets will be sent on application.

SIMPLEX ENVELOPE MOUNTS.

The latest, best and absolutely transparent mounts for entire envelopes, stamps on cover, post cards, etc. One of the most useful and attractively striking inventions of American Philately. On account of the thinness of the material these mounts may be used in any ordinary book or album. Try a few on your rarities

Our numbers are made to fit the current P. O. sizes of envelopes. Samples 10c each.
